No Lunch Deliveries

We offer parents the option of ordering hot lunch or you can send your child's lunch with them to school. We do not allow deliveries from stores and restaurants during the school day except in emergencies. Your understanding is appreciated.

Super Sunday

Federation Super Sunday is this Sunday, March 13th. Please go to <https://jewishmiami.org/super2022/rsvp/> if you'd like to volunteer for the virtual phone-a-thon. The hours for Yeshiva parents are 12:00-2:00 PM. We receive substantial support from the Greater Miami Jewish Federation each year. This is our opportunity to show our HaKoras HaTov

Girls Rosh Chodesh Adar Festivities

The girls at KES played a game at the Erev Shabbos Assembly where they had to identify their teachers. The game was difficult and hilarious since they were all dressed up and unrecognizable!

5th Grade Girls Siyum

Mazel tov to Mrs. Berkman's 5G2 and 5G3 on finishing Parshas Shemos! The girls celebrated with a beautiful Siyum luncheon and had the zechus to hear Divrei Torah and Bracha from Rabbi Friedman (grandfather of our very own Menucha Friedman!) Some girls in the class prepared Divrei Torah to share and it was truly a beautiful occasion!

4th Grade Siyum

In honor of their Siyum on the second Perek in Mishnayos Sukkah, all four fourth grade classes joined together to play a massive game of Mishnayos Sukkah Gimkl! They boys answered many review questions on the Mishnayos in a fast paced, competitive and exciting way! They finished off the celebration with yummy chocolate danishes, Mazel Tov!

5th Grade Fahare

The fifth grade boys have been shteiging away in Perek Eilu Metzios after receiving their Gemaros just over a month ago. Some of our boys have already risen to the challenge of being fahered on the entire first Amud of Gemara by Rabbi Grossman. May we see much Nachas from all of our boys!
